

```

Initial settings
brightness = 50 # Set initial brightness level (50% as an example)
max_brightness = 100
min_brightness = 0
max_lines = 35 # Maximum number of lines to display

while True:
    # Get user input
    user_input = input("Press '+' to increase, '-' to decrease, or 'exit' to quit: ").strip().lower()

    if user_input == 'exit':
        # Exit the program
        print("Exiting the program.")
        pass # Placeholder for future code (if needed later) break

    elif '+' in user_input:
        # Increase brightness based on the number of '+' presses
        increase = user_input.count('+') brightness += increase
        # Make sure brightness stays within the max and min limits
        if brightness > max_brightness:
            brightness = max_brightness

        # Show updated brightness display (scale brightness to max_lines)
        scaled_brightness = int(brightness / max_brightness * max_lines)
        brightness_display = '|' * scaled_brightness
        if brightness == max_brightness:
            print(f"Brightness: {brightness} [Max Brightness] [{brightness_display}]")
        else:
            print(f"Brightness: {brightness} [{brightness_display}]")

    elif '-' in user_input:
        # Decrease brightness based on the number of '-' presses
        decrease = user_input.count('-') brightness -= decrease
        # Make sure brightness stays within the max and min limits
        if brightness < min_brightness:
            brightness = min_brightness

        # Show updated brightness display (scale brightness to max_lines)
        scaled_brightness = int(brightness / max_brightness * max_lines)
        brightness_display = '|' * scaled_brightness
        if brightness == min_brightness:
            print(f"Brightness: {brightness} [Minimum Brightness] [{brightness_display}]")
        else:
            print(f"Brightness: {brightness} [{brightness_display}]")

    else:
        print("Invalid input. Please press '+' or '-' or 'exit'.") pass # Placeholder for future handling (if needed later)

➡ Press '+' to increase, '-' to decrease, or 'exit' to quit: ++
Brightness: 52 [|||||||]
Press '+' to increase, '-' to decrease, or 'exit' to quit: exit Exiting the program.

```

